9. SIGNAL LATENCY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Users engaging with the Social Trade Hub platform recognize and accept that the duration taken for signals to transmit from Telegram to the MetaTrader platform can fluctuate. This variability in transmission time is subject to multiple factors, including but not limited to the speed of the internet connection utilized, potential delays within the Telegram server infrastructure, and prevailing market conditions affecting data transfer.

Social Trade Hub is committed to minimizing latency in signal transmission, striving for prompt and efficient replication from Telegram to MetaTrader. However, users acknowledge and agree that despite the platform's efforts, the system cannot ensure real-time replication of signals due to the inherent complexities and external factors affecting data transmission.

Understanding these factors, users engaging with Social Trade Hub acknowledge that while the platform aims for minimal latency, the variations in transmission times may occur and are beyond the platform's absolute control. Therefore, users accept that the timing of signal replication may vary and agree not to hold Social Trade Hub liable for any discrepancies in signal transmission time that may impact trading outcomes.

10. HUB SERVICE PERFORMANCE DISCLAIMER

Social Trade Hub operates its Hub service with the primary goal of facilitating swift and efficient trade executions for its users. The platform endeavors to maintain a high-performance standard, ensuring rapid execution of trades as signaled by Telegram onto the MetaTrader platform.

This Content may be owned by us or third parties. Unauthorized use of the Content may violate copyright, trademark, and other laws. You do not have any rights to the Content, and you may only access and use the Content as permitted under this Agreement. Any other use requires our prior written consent.

When making copies of the Content, you must retain all copyright and proprietary notices that are present in the original Content. You are prohibited from transferring, licensing, sublicensing, selling, modifying, reproducing, displaying, publicly performing, creating derivative versions of, distributing, or using the Content in any way for public or commercial purposes. The use or posting of the Content on any other website or in a networked computer environment for any purpose is expressly forbidden.

If you violate any part of this Agreement, your permission to access and use the Content and the Website automatically terminates, and you must immediately delete any copies of the Content that you have made.

Other product and service names mentioned on the Website may be trademarks or service marks owned by others (referred to as "Third-Party Trademarks" together with our marks, the "Trademarks"). Nothing on the Website should be interpreted as granting any license or right to use the Trademarks without our prior written permission for each specific use. You are not allowed to retransmit any of the Content without our express written consent for each instance.

37. INDEMNIFICATION

You agree to protect, indemnify, and hold us, as well as our officers, directors, employees, successors, licensees, and assigns, harmless from any claims, actions, or demands, including reasonable legal and accounting fees, that may arise from your violation of this Agreement or your misuse of the Content or the Website. If such a claim, lawsuit, or proceeding occurs, we will notify you and provide assistance, at your expense, in defending against it. We reserve the right, at your expense, to take exclusive control of any matter that requires indemnification under this section. In such a situation, you agree to cooperate with reasonable requests to support our defense of the matter.
